

274098

Duke, Daphne

From: Minges, Josh
Sent: Thursday, January 18, 2018 10:53 AM
To: Duke, Daphne
Subject: FW: Docket 2017-332-E - Request to hold Docket in Abeyance
Importance: High

Hi Daphne,

Would you please add this to Docket No. 2017-332-E as Joint Request of Parties to Hold Docket in Abeyance Pending Settlement Discussions."

Thanks!

Josh

From: Carrie Schurg [mailto:caschurg@AustinRogersPA.com]
Sent: Tuesday, January 16, 2018 2:43 PM
To: Minges, Josh <Josh.Minges@psc.sc.gov>
Cc: Rebecca.Dulin@duke-energy.com; Richard Whitt <rlwhitt@austinrogerspa.com>; Pittman, Jenny <jpittman@regstaff.sc.gov>
Subject: Docket 2017-332-E - Request to hold Docket in Abeyance
Importance: High

This email was dictated by Richard Whitt:

Josh:

1. Please acknowledge receipt of this email.
2. I represent the Complainants/Petitioners in Docket 2017-332-E, and Rebecca Dulin represents the Defendants/Respondents.
3. Rebecca and I submit this as a joint request. Our clients are engaged in good-faith negotiations to settle this Complaint Docket. As a result, we respectfully request that you, as Hearing Officer, issue a Directive order holding all filing deadlines in this Docket in abeyance, pending further correspondence from us, including holding in abeyance the filing date for my clients' amended Complaint, which was scheduled to be filed, today.
4. Jenny Pittman, Esquire, represents ORS in this matter, and she does not oppose our request.

Regards,
 Richard Whitt.